Student is fairly consistent on medium-paced shots; has demonstrated limited ability to control direction and depth of ball; and has limited ability to put topspin or slice on the ball. Most common doubles formation is still one up, one back; and approaches net when play dictates but is weak in execution. This class will further develop the use of topspin and slice groundstrokes and their role in tennis strategy; develop aggressive and effective net play; introduce advanced doubles and singles strategy.

Winter/Spring 2011 Tennis Levels

This fall we changed our current leveling system to better match NTRP (National Tennis Rating Program). Below is a general conversion guide. Levels received for lessons during the summer term will have both the THPRD and NTRP levels. Please note all summer 2011 classes were based off of THPRD leveling. The following conversion chart is for all ages.

THPRD (Old)	NTRP (Effective Fall 2011)
1	1
1.5	1.5
2	2
2.5	2
3	2.5
3.5	3
4	3.5

If you have questions or concerns of where you or your child fits into the new rating system, please speak to your instructor or come in for a free 15-minute evaluation. Call the Tennis Center (503/629-6331) for available evaluation times.

For a full listing of the NTRP leveling requirements please visit <http://bit.ly/jQSJv4>
