

NEWS

Contact:

Bob Wayt
503-614-1218 (direct)
503-686-5134 (cell)

March 29, 2016

FIVE REAPPOINTED TO OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE FOR THPRD BOND MEASURE

The Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District Board of Directors have reappointed five community volunteers to the Parks Bond Citizen Oversight Committee.

Selected for new two-year terms were Wink Brooks, Anthony Mills, Kevin O'Donnell, Stephen Pearson and Jack Platten.

The oversight committee consists of 10 members whose purpose is to ensure the park district meets the objectives of the 2008 bond measure and uses the funds as planned. Committee members focus on delivery of overall bond measure obligations, not specific projects or activities. All members live within THPRD boundaries.

The committee reports annually on overall progress in meeting objectives. Members have the opportunity to recommend improvements in efficiency, administration or performance.

Parks Bond Measure 34-156 was approved in November 2008 by voters within THPRD boundaries. The measure provided funds for land acquisition and dozens of improvement projects focused on parks, trails, natural areas, athletic fields, and facilities. For more information, visit <http://www.thprd.org/district-information/2008-bond-measure>.

About THPRD

Formed in 1955, THPRD is the largest special park district in Oregon, spanning 50 square miles and serving about 240,000 residents in the greater Beaverton area. The district provides year-round recreational opportunities for people of all ages and abilities. Offerings include thousands of widely diverse classes, 95 park sites with active recreational amenities, nearly 70 miles of trails, eight swim centers, six recreation centers, and about 1,500 acres of natural areas. For more information, visit www.thprd.org or call 503-645-6433.

#