JONES RESIGNS FROM THPRD BOARD; REPLACEMENT TO BE APPOINTED

Jerry Jones Jr. has resigned from the Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District's Board of Directors.

Jones had served on the board since July 1, 2013. He was reelected to a second four-year term effective July 1, 2017 and was in his second year as president.

In accordance with state election laws, the board will invite applications from within THPRD's service boundaries to fulfill the remainder of the now-vacant term, which ends June 30, 2021. It is anticipated the board will discuss the appointment process at their January meeting.

In addition, the board will elect a new president to serve until the end of the current fiscal year (June 30, 2018). Ali Kavarianian, board secretary, will be interim president until then.

Other remaining board members are John Griffiths, Felicita Montebancho and Holly Thompson.

About THPRD

Formed in 1955, THPRD is the largest special park district in Oregon, spanning 50 square miles and serving about 240,000 residents in the greater Beaverton area. The district provides year-round recreational opportunities for people of all ages and abilities. Offerings include thousands of widely diverse classes, 95 park sites with active recreational amenities, nearly 70 miles of trails, eight swim centers, six recreation centers, and 1,500 acres of natural areas.
